CEFR & SMEAG Courses Equivalencies

CEFR stands for “Common European Framework of Reference,” which is an evaluation standard for measuring the objective level of English for non-English speaking students. SMEAG ESL Courses accurately measure students' levels in accordance with international assessment standards and use the best teaching methods and materials for each level.

Two distinct types of ESL Course

	Intensive ESL	ESL
Campus	Sparta	Classic & Capital
Morning Sparta [Vocabulary classes]	Mandatory for the whole enrollment period	Optional
Evening Sparta [Grammar & Pattern]	Mandatory for the whole enrollment period	First 4-week mandatory
Note	※ Daily Vocabulary & Grammar test is conducted during Morning Sparta class. Failing the test more than 2 times in a week will result in not being able to go out on Friday.	None

Enjoyable English Club

SMEAG English Club is designed to make learning English easy and fun with a variety of experiences with international students. Students attending the SMEAG English Club are able to experience the English language used in specific situations and are quickly adapting to the English-speaking environment.
